Entrepreneurship as Self-Expression

Tuesday, May 14 7-9 p.m. $20

Expressing your personal mission in the form of your own business involves a blending of honest personal introspection, practical business skills and a willingness to take risks. This seminar will help you find the right business idea for you and then offer tips for evaluating, funding and starting your own business. Learn how entrepreneurship can allow you to serve others while also promoting your own personal financial growth.
